[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7, 1868.

NOTES REDEEMED BUT NOT CANCELLED.

Although the Secretary of the Treasury believes he has power to re-issue notes redeemed but not cancelled, it is not determined what he will do, as this will depend on circumstances and according to what is believed here of the improved condition of the market. It may not become necessary to resort to that measure in order to afford relief.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT ORDER.

The Treasury department is informed that at most of the points of delivery on the western waters, other than those on the frontiers, general diversity of practice in collecting fees from steamboats and other vessels; and also at most of the said ports exorbitant fees are collected, for which officers in Custom Houses have no warrant in law. In order, therefore, to correct such abuses, a list of fees has been prepared and soon be promulgated for the benefit of all concerned.

NEW ORLEANS.

Gen. Rousseau Defended—Troops Recalled—Gen. Rousseau and the Press.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—All the troops sent to reinforce Gen. Rousseau during the excitement previous to the election, have been returned to their command.

The Republican has a leader defending Gen. Rousseau from the attacks of the Radical press in the North. It says: "His recent position has been most difficult, and, knowing as we do, his views, his wishes and means at his disposal to enforce these views and wishes, we propose to do a gallant soldier the justice of placing him correctly before the world. Gen. Rousseau, recently from private life, was known as a decided Democrat, and it is part of the justice we render him to say that he disavowed, with promptitude, any partisan bias in the administration of his command. When violence and riot threatened its worst consummation the troops at his command were a mere handful. To the request that these forces be dispatched to Franklin and Opelousas, he responded by an order directing the troops immediately to these points. But before they could move disorders in the city increased so that not a musket could be spared. Feeling his weakness he telegraphed to the Secretary of War earnestly demanding that more troops be sent him. The Secretary ordered General Gillem to dispatch at once from the Mississippi all the troops that could be spared. Through the leaders of the different parties he made constant efforts to quiet each club and faction. Justice to him, therefore, requires us to say to our friends he was earnest and true in his endeavors to protect life and prevent a riot."

NEW ORLEANS, November 8.—Gen. Rosseau repudiates the conversation said to have been held by him and detailed in the letter of the correspondent of a New York paper dated the 28th ult. Up to three or four days previous to the election it was his opinion, as well as that of every one, that trouble would occur on election day; but on a pledge from the Democratic clubs to exert themselves for the preservation of order and the protection of all voters, no further apprehension was felt.

PHILADELPHIA.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7, 1868.

GRANT'S MAJORITY IN PENNSYLVANIA WILL BE FORTY THOUSAND.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, November 7, 1868.

THE FINANCIAL CLOUD.

Telegrams from Washington to the effect that the Secretary had decided that he has the right to issue $44,000,000 of legal tenders, making the maximum circulation $4,000,000,000 had a magic influence on Wall street this morning, and gloom and depression gave way to cheerfulness and bouyancy. There was a sharp rebound in values from the extreme low prices of yesterday, and a great rush to buy.

Upon enquiry at the Sub-Treasury we learned that Mr. McCulloch had written a letter to Mr. Vandyke, in which he regrets the money pressure, but has no desire to interfere between the speculators in Wall street; but in the event of the practice extending outside or the national credit suffering therefrom, he would feel constrained to relieve matters by re-issuing some of the greenbacks withdrawn from circulation but not cancelled.

Mr. Van Dyke says if the speculators expect him to run up a large balance here to relieve them they will be disappointed, but if there is any run on the Treasury, with three per cent. certificates or matured compound notes, then greenbacks would likely be re-issued to a certain extent.

The Secretary further says in his letter that he will not sell any more gold or bonds at present. The announcement of these facts tended to restore confidence, but this puts a different face upon the matter, and shows that the greenbacks are only to be re-issued on certain emergencies. When this become known it put a damper upon the speculation for a rise and there was a general decline from the highest point.

EXAMINATION OF W. A. TREADWELL.

The examination of W. A. Treadwell who was arrested at Newark on Wednesday for selling forged naturalization papers, in Hudson county, commenced before Commissioner Jenkins in Jersey city this morning. Several witnesses were examined, among them George Dusenbery, Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, George R. Cornwell, lately appointed United States Marshall for New Jersey, Charles H. Winfred, State Senator from Hudson county. The testimony of the latter, to whom Treadwell had given one of the certificates, showed that the accused had since sold many hundred certificates to candidates in Hudson and Essex counties.

Meade, striking her amidships and cutting her down below the water line. The Meade took off part of the crew and passengers and brought them to the city, the Captain and the remainder of the crew remaining by the ship. The steamer Lackawanna has been sent to her assistance. The General Meade was so much injured that she was run ashore on the Jersey Flats to prevent her from sinking.

All Quiet in Arkansas.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., November 7.—Accounts from the counties declared under martial law by the Governor's proclamation show that the best feeling prevails among the citizens of all parties and colors.

Martial law will be proclaimed in Little Rock and Pulaski counties on Monday.

There has not been a fight there in three months.

Governor Clayton is as crazy as a bed bug, and even Republicans laugh at him and his war proclamation.

Arkansas was never more quiet.

North Carolina Election.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WILMINGTON, Nov. 7.—The returns now in are sufficient to show that the State has gone for Grant by a considerable majority. It is thought the Conservatives have made a large gain. The estimate of the Morning Star on Wednesday gave an approximate correctness that gave the State to Grant by 8,000. Returns received from the mountain district to-night show the election of Plato Durham, Conservative, to Congress. The delegation stands five Republicans and two Conservatives, a Democratic gain of one. The official count will increase the Republican majority of New Hanover county, including Wilmington, to 167, being a Republican gain of 246.

Alabama Election.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTGOMERY, November 7.—The Legislature spent the entire day in discussing whether this is the beginning of a new session or the continuance of the old session.

Returns from thirty counties give Seymour and Blair a majority of 14,151, and Grant a majority of 23,600. Nearly all the inhabitants of the remaining counties are white, and will probably give a majority sufficient to overcome the negro counties. The result is doubtful.

White Man and Negro Drowned.

FLORIDA.

People Still Excited—Posse of Citizens Called Out—Legislature Adjourned—The Impeachment Matter—Lt. Gleason Demands Possession of the Government Archieves, Is Refused and Arrested by Gov. Reed—Two Proclamations—Articles of Impeachment, &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TALLAHASSE, Fla., November 7.—About nine o'clock last night, the citizens to the number of one hundred or more, were summoned by the city and county authorities to hold themselves in readiness to aid in quelling any riot. At 11 o'clock there were no indiactions of trouble, and the posse was discharged. The cause of the call was the conflicting orders of Governor Reed and Lt. Gleason.

Fears were entertained that the colored people would be called upon to support the action of the Legislature, and the citizens were uneasy to-day, but they will not interfere except to aid in preserving the peace, when they will render prompt assistance.

Rumors were current to-day that the plantation negroes had been notified to come in to-night, but the report may be doubted. One company of the Seventh regiment has been posted here, about thirty strong.

The Legislature adjourned this morning until January. There being no quorum present when the impeachment passed, several members held seats and voted, whose seats had been declared vacant by the proclamation of the Governor, by reason of the members accepting and occupying other public offices. Geo. Reed refuses to recognize the action of the Legislature and declares it an illegal void.

Lieut. Gov. Gleason this morning demanded possession of the Executive Chamber and was refused by Gov. Reed, who has brought suit against Lieut. Gov. Gleason and Alden, Secretary of State, before the Circuit Court, for conspiring against the government, and they are now under arrest. The general impression seems to be that Gov. Reed is in the right.

TALLAHASSEE, November 7.—The case of Gov. Reed against Gov. Gleason and Secretary Alden, before Judge Coke, was put over until next Friday.

The following proclamation has been issued from the Executive Chamber:

Tallahassee, November 7, 1868.—"Whereas, the Assembly of Florida, as a body organized in extraordinary session, held by virtue of a proclamation issued by the Governor of Florida, on the third day of November, A. D. 1868, have impeached Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida, for high crimes and misdemeanors in office; and whereas, under the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Florida the said Harrisen Reed, Governor of Florida, is debarred from exercising the functions of the executive office of the State, and the administration thereof devolves upon the Lieutenant Governor. Now, therefore, I, Wm. H. Gleason, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Florida, do issue my proclamation taking possession of the Executive Department of the government in all its parts, and I hereby call upon all citizens of the State to support the government, obey the laws of the State and preserve peace and quiet.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed the sixth day of November, A. D. 1868.

[Signed,] WM. H. GLEASON,
Lieutenant Gov. and Acting Governor.

Attest: GEO. OLDEN, Secretary of State.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA, November 7, 1868. To the Sheriff of Leon county, State of Florida, SIR: I am under the Constitution and laws of the State, the rightful Governor thereof, and shall continue to exercise the power and authority and discharge the duties belonging to the office of the Executive Department until the judicial tribunals of the State shall determine otherwise. To the determination of the judiciary, I will, like every other good citizen, yield peaceful and immediate obedience.

[Signed] HARRISON REED, Governor.

The following are the articles of impeachment:

First—He has been guilty of falsehood and lying while transacting business with members of the Legislature and other officers of State.

Second—I charge him with incompetency, inasmuch as he has filled commissions to officers in blank, and other irresponsible persons having issued them.

Third—He has issued a proclamation declaring many seats of the Legislature vacant, before the members were duly elected and returned to fill the places of those who had resigned, or their legal term of service expired.

Fourth—He has been guilty of embezzlement, having taken from the State Treasury securities and money and sold such securities and then failed to return a portion or all the proceeds of the sale to the Treasurv.

Fifth—He has been guilty of corruption and bribery, he having bartered and sold prominent offices in the State to sundry persons for money to him in hand paid, and then nominated such persons to the Senate for confirmation.

For and in consideration of these and many other crimes and misdemeanors which have come to my knowledge, I ask, at the hands of the Assembly, the impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors, of Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida.

[Signed] HORATIO C. JENES.

Governor Reed occupies the Executive rooms in the Capital as heretofore. There has been no guard at the Capital from one o'clock this morning until half-past seven this evening. Apparently, the citizens fear trouble to-night, but as no one could profit by it, it is hoped none will occur.

Grand Illumination—New Brighton, Fallston and Beaver Falls all in a Blaze.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, Nov. 6, 1868.

Although it may seem to some a work of superogation, the people of these loyal villages concluded to have a little jollification in honor of the grand victories so lately achieved for liberty and union, reconstruction and peace, together with Grant and Colfax.

The principal streets were all in a blaze, and in fact nearly the whole town. The dwellings, stores, banks, offices, shops, hotels, and even trees, whole rows of them, were so almost universally illuminated, that the query was suggested, where do the so-called Democrats live and do business who voted here at the late election? It is true, they were comparatively few, but I do not remember having seen one of them on the street since.

Some of the buildings on Broadway, Main, Bridge, and Railroad streets, and on the bluff, presented a very fine appearance; also some of the buildings in Fallston.

There were quite a number of transparencies about the doors and windows. The following are some of the mottoes: "Victory, Grant and Peace," "Let us Have Peace," "Reconstruction and Peace."

A number of buildings exhibited large portraits of Washington, Lincoln and Grant, arranged inside of the windows, with good taste.

At one place a large portrait was accompanied by the inscription, "Our Chieftain followed by the tribute paid the immortal Washington, 'first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen.'"

Several of the streets were kept well lighted with bonfires, and some wide-awake fellows kept up a beautiful bonfire all evening on the highest point of the Alum Rocks on the opposite side of Beaver river. I presume it was two hundred feet above the town, the bonfires making it look like a fire in clouds.

The people of New Brighton appreciate the glorious victory they helped to achieve at the ballot-box on the 3d inst., and well they may. Thousands yet unborn will rejoice over it.

Thus ends the campaign of 1868. Long live our noble standard bearers! May they prove equal to the great work before them and ever prove true to the important trust confided to them by a liberty-loving people. And may the God of nations protect their lives and health, enable them to rule in righteousness and give our long distracted country lasting peace and prosperity.

Elements of Astronomy.

This work is designed as a text book for the study of this beautiful science, and is especially prepared for the use of academies, seminaries and families. The author, Rev. John Davis, A. M., resides in Allegheny City, and was formerly Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy in Allegheny City College, and late Principal of the Academy of Science, Allegheny City, Pa. The advancement of this department of science, and the importance of having practical helps to aid in its study, as well as economise time, and the long felt want of such a book, led the author to prepare a work suitable in every respect to fill the vacuum. The numerous illustrations, gotten up at vast expense, and the text will enable youthful minds to grasp the points of study with comparative ease over the old forms of presenting this science.

The work is happily arranged into three parts, embracing nearly one hundred and fifty sections, each paragraph numbered, with explanatory notes at the foot of each page giving the names of the "starry host," and a series of questions and answers of which the student will find embodied in the respective paragraphs in each section. In order to facilitate the study of the science, Mr. Davis has invented delicate machines, denominated "Planetelles," "Heliotellus," and "Lunatellus," which have been in course of construction for more than twenty years. They are wonderful instruments and worth seeing. The book was printed by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, the well-known publishers, and is a beautiful specimen of book-making. We believe the work is on sale at the book establishment of Dr. J. L. Read, 67 Wood street, and R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street, but the immediate interests of the work and instruments are in charge of the author, Prof. Davis, and Mr. John Woods, late banker in this city.

CLIPPINGS.

THE first train crossed the railroad bridge over the Mississippi at Quincy, Illinois, last week. The train weighed 1,000,000 pounds, was nearly two hours crossing, and the bridge showed scarcely a perceptible tremor.

THE collections of revenue from whisky in the Chicago district for the month of October last, at the rate of fifty cents per gallon, were $200,000—being greater than during any single month while the tax stood at two dollars per gallon.

THE Iuka (Mississippi) Gazette, of the 29th, has the following: "If Grant is elected, there will be thunder to pay in certain localities, and you had better get your wives and daughters, mothers and sisters out before the carnival begins."

THE Ohio Statesman has an editorial headed, "The sheet that was a traitor to the Democracy—hang the New York World." It blames the World for the Democratic defeat, and exclaims in emphatic capitals, "Let its circulation cease."

AT Belvidere, while on his way East, General Grant responded to the greeting of a procession by saying: "Gentlemen—I see many of you in uniforms. You laid them off three years ago, and you can now lay them off again, as we will have peace. Good night."

MR. THOMAS COOKE, a famous mechanician, died a fortnight since, at York, England, in the sixty-third year of his age. Mr. Cooke was the most celebrated manufacturer of astronomical instruments in Great Britain, and was, besides, a man of large scientific attainments.

THERE are rumors afloat about the Pacific Railroad calculated to cause distrust, although the precise character of the trouble has not been made public. It is understood that charges have been made against prominent individuals connected therewith, and special instructions have been given the Commissioners to investigate them.

ON Saturday night, All Hallow Eve, a number of young Irish people in Milford, Conn., were engaged in the customary festivities of the occasion. One of their practices is to visit their neighbors' gardens and cut a cross upon some growing vegetable, to insure a bountiful harvest. On this occasion two young girls went into the garden of Bartholomew O'Donel, when he immediately fired upon them with a revolver. The ball struck Miss Bridget Murray, of Boston, inflicting a wound from the effects of which she died in an hour. O'Donel was arrested.

How the Election News Was Received by Grant.

GALENA, Ill., November 4.—The room in which General Grant sat last evening was crowded with Congressmen, Judges, town and county politicians, army officers and reporters, all apparently more eager than the man on whose account they gathered, while they compared the returns and lingered to receive more. A dispatch arrived from Petroleum V. Nasby, who forwarded his resignation as Postmaster, and announced that he gone into the grocery business. After this the torrent of news and congratulation was incessant, interrupted only by the comments of the little party. More than the requisite number of electoral votes was now secure, and by degrees the citizens dropped away, and a little after midnight the President elect of the United States retired from the scene of his latest triumph as modestly as he had left the little house at Appomatox, where four years ago he received the previous surrender of the enemies of his country.

GALENA, November 5.—Last night the people of this city celebrated the election of their distinguished townsman, Gen. Grant, with a grand torchlight procession, illuminations and a general jubilation. The Tanners were out in full force, and these, with citizens to the number of several thousand, marched to the General's residence. In response to repeated and energetic calls, Gen. Grant appeared on the piazza and spoke as follows:

"Friends and Fellow-citizens of Galena: I thank you for this additional mark of your kindness. Sufficient, I suppose, has now been heard of the result of the late election to show upon whom it has fallen to administer the affairs of the Nation for the next four years. I suppose it is no egotism in me to say that this choice has fallen on me. The responsibilities of the position I feel, but accept them without fear, if I can have the same support which has been given to me thus far. I thank you and all others who have fought together in this contest—a contest in which you are all interested personally, as much as, and, perhaps, more than I am. I now take occasion to bid you good-bye, as I leave here to-morrow for Washington, and shall but probably see but few of you again for some years to come, although it would give me great pleasure to make an annual pilgrimage to a place where I have enjoyed myself so much as I have here during the past few months."

Secret Griefs of the Democracy.

We make the subjoined extracts from a New York letter, dated previous to the election, and printed in the Cincinnati Enquirer of the 5th:

Hoffman will (I hope) be elected Governor of the State; and, if so, the victory will be complete to the managers; for, do you know, they do not care who is President, so they have the Governor of the State. They have no hopes outside of New York, because here lies their strength, and having sold out their political principles on the financial question, their victory is complete with the election of Hoffman, and either Grant or Seymour.

I tell you, a total rout is before us, so far as the electoral vote can proclaim it. Not disgraceful as some have it, because the disgrace is altogether on the Republican side. But for George H. Pendleton, the chevalier, without disgrace and without reproach, of American statesmen, and the bold and truthful Frank Blair, of the late army, there would now be no contest at all. Grant and Colfax would walk over the track without opposition.

The people themselves are Democratic, but they were cheated and sold out in July by a conspiracy of New York capitalists and ambitious Western men, who were candidates for President and Cabinet offices. I tell the truth; let the galled jade wince. This whole thing has been an effort to make the Democratic party endorse the class interests that grew up under it here, and which, if Grant is elected, will control the legislation of the country.

The Feeling at the Capitol.

The Cabinet-makers that throng the city have already begun to ply their vocation, and the Congressional directory has been thumbed and clipped until there is little left of it to furnish material for this industrious class of persons. Probably during the past few days enough proposals have been made for Gen. Grant's acceptance, to supply all the administrations for a half-century to come. It is not uncommon to hear of one Democrat naming a dozen persons for the position of Secretary of the Treasury, that being apparently the office which most excites their solicitude. The number of original Grant men here is really astonishing. The Departments throng with those who declare that Grant was their first and only choice for President, and hundreds insist that they would have resigned had Gov. Seymour been elected. The class thus embraced does not include alone the overpaid clerks, who so vigorously press their twenty per cent. claims at each session of Congress, but several heads of Bureaus and Departments, Superintendents, Chiefs and other high officials. Altogether the political situation here since the election is very interesting.—Washington Letter.

Latest From Dr. Livingtone.

Sir Roderick Murchison announces the receipt of a letter from the African explorer, Livingstone, written in October and December, 1867, dated at Marungu and Cazembe. When these letters were written, Livingstone had been living for three months with friendly Arabs, and after exploring Lake Tanganyika he intended to return to Zanzibar. Sir Rodericks adds:

"With the authentic data now before us we may well believe that the news which came by telegraph from Bombay, dated October 3, was perfectly correct; for, after Livingtone quitted the southern end of Tanganyika, he will have had about ten months to explore the whole course of that lake, and afterward to find his way to the seacoast. The ordinary post from Zanzibar, whether by the Seychelles or the Cape, usually takes six weeks or more to reach England, and hence if my distinguished friend reaches that place in a week after the departure of the steamer which carried the news to Irincoinalee, some weeks may probably elapse before we can know of his arrival at Zanzibar. He may, indeed, bring the news himself, and enable his admiring countrymen to give him a hearty welcome before Christmas."

THERE is a rumor that the Emperor Napoleon is disposed to interfere in Spanish affairs, and that he desires the elevation of Don Carlos to the throne of Spain. We should think the experience of the first Napoleon would make the present Emperor rather chary of following his example.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

A GRECIAN ODE.

She stepped upon the platform—
Her grace I can't forget—
For oh! that Grecian bend of hers
Clings to my memory yet.
Her smile was like the sunbeam;
Her bonnet "some," you bet;
But that lovely Grecian bend of hers
Was the "heaviest" bend I met.
Her waterfall was gorgeous,
And all who saw conteud
That her grace w s never equaled
By the Saratoga bend.
But alas, for maiden beauty,
Dust will return to dust,
And the most enchanting bender
Is doomed to moth and rust.
In stooping to assume her seat,
(I hate to tell, but must,)
Some whalebone thing that staid her up
Bent double—and then "bust!"
She softly sighed, and sweetly smiled,
And then in accents tender,
As she rubbed her back, she gently said:
"Thank Heaven, I'm off my bender!"

LAST LOVE.

First love is a pretty romance,
Though not quite so lasting as reckoned,
For when one awakes from its trance,
There's a great store of bliss in the second.

And e'en should the second subside,
A lover can never despair:
For the world is uncommonly wide,
And the women—uncommonly fair.

Then poets their raptures may tell,
Who never were put to the test;
A first love is all very well,
But, believe me, the last is the best.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, November 7, 1868.

The general markets have been rather quiet during the past week, but now that the election is over, and the polittical excitement subsided, an improvement in business may be expected. At present, the stringency in all of the leading money centres tends very much toward retarding business, by restricting speculation, but this, it is thought, will be of short duration.

APPLE BUTTER—Countinues dull, and the receipts large; we continue to quote however at 75 in kegs, and 80 to 85c, in crocks.

APPLES—Continue to arrive freely, and while the supply is considerably in excess of the demand, prices remain unchanged at $2 to $4 per bbl, as to quality.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is dull but unchanged at 5c per pound.

BUTTER—Continues dull though unchanged at 38 to 40c, for prime to choice Roll.

BEANS—Prime small white (new crop) quoted at $3,75 to $4 per bushel.

CHEESE—Is in fair demand, and unchanged.

CIDER—Is unchanged at $6 to $8, according to quality and size of barrel.

CHESTNUTS—In limited supply and higher, with sales reported at $6,50 to $7 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—Western still quoted at $15 to $16. Prime Eastern Cultivated scarce and firm at $21 to $22.

EGGS—Scarce and higher, with sales of pickled reported at 33 to 35c.

DRIED FRUIT—Is dull and lower. Peaches may be qouted at 12 cents for quarters, and 14c for prime halves. Apples 9 to 10 cents.

HAY—Baled Hay continues dull, and prices are drooping; may be quoted at $25 to $27, for good to prime. The tow boat Tom Farrow is coming with 500 tons of Baled Hay.

GRAIN—There is little or nothing doing in Wheat, and in the the absence of sales, we continne to quote at $1,80 to $1,85 for for Red. Spring Wheat does not seem to be wanted at all, New Corn is a perfect drug, and cannot be quoted above 80 to 85c. Prime old Ear Corn is in demand at $1,15 to $1,16, while Shelled cannot be quoted above $1,09 to $1,10. Rye is quiet, and, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at $1,35 to $1,38. Oats dull; we now quote at 62 to 63c, on track, and the usual advance for small lots in store. In regard to Barley, it is difficult to say anything definite; buyers and sellers are apart, and there is no established price.

PROVISIONS— Bacon Shoulders are quoted firm at 13¾ to 14c, and but few in market. Supply of Sides and Hams almost exhausted. Lard is still quoted at 18c, and Mess Pork, $31.

ONIONS—Continue very dull and the receipts are not falling off; we continue to quote at $4 to $4,50 per bbl.

POTATOES — Peach Blows are very dull, under the influence of liberal receipts, and prices are lower. We are cognizant of two car loads having been offered to-day at 75c per bushel. Prime Jersey Sweets, $5 per bbl.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is scarce and in steady demand at $2,50. Timothy seed dull with small sales at $3. Clover seed small sales at $8.

SALT—The demand has improved somewhat within the past week, but prices remain unchanged at $1,75 by the car load, and $1,90 to $2, in store.

FEATHERS — Sales of Live Geese Feathers,on arrival,at 75c, and in small lots at 80 to 85c.

TALLOW—Prime rendered is in steady demand at 12c.

The Julia No. 2, from Zanesville, is due here this morniug, and will return again to-morrow at 4 p. m.

The fine new steamer Arkansas, Capt. A. H. Shaw, is up for New Orleans, as is also the Ida Rees, Capt. Stubblefield.

The Armadillo, Capt. D. H. Swaney, and Ida Rees, Capt. Stubblefield, are also announced for New Orleans.

The Ida Rees, for New Orleans, being unavoidably detained, will leave Tuesday morning at ten o'clock. Shippers will please bear this in mind, and send bills of lading in early.

—The Glasgow and St. Charles were aground at Four Mile on Thursday.

—The crew of the Mary Davage, enroute for Portland passed through Cincinnati on Thursday.

—The Mollie Hambleton will prove a total loss. Her hull is broken considerably, and some of her officers say that she can not be raised.

—The New Orleans and Ouachita packet Lem Leoti has taken the place of the Vicksburg, and is commanded by Captain G. Press. Work.

—Lien claims against the steamer Great Republic are many in number. It has been decided that she must be sold, and that soon, at public auction.

—The Tom Farrow and two barges left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday morning. The barges contained 2,700 bales hay (about 500 tuns) from Aurora and Vevay, besides a large amount of St. Louis freight. Elbert Williamson was one of her pilots.

—Messrs. Rothe and Rauleigh, of Pedauch, Ky., have contracted to build a hull for the Northwestern Union, or White Collar packet company, the hull to be completed on or before February 15th. The dimensions are, length 235 feet beam 37 feet, hold 5 feet.

—The Memphis Bulletin says: The hands about the boats at the wharf jumped on Monday night causing considerable confusion and some delay. The Stonewall finding there was danger of being left without a crew dropped down to President's island and anchored for the night.

—Mr. Center, the mate on the steamer Lightfoot was accidentally drowned at the foot of Blannerbassett's island Saturday. The was putting a line out and the skiff capsized with him. Though he was a good swimmer the swiftness of the current prevented him from reaching shore. He leaves a family.

—The Wheeling Intelligencer says: Deputy Marshall Irwin yesterday took a skiff and boarded the steamer Malta while she was under way, and taking command, brought her up to the "bone-yard," and landed her alongside the Leslie Combs. As the owners did not relish the Marshal as a commander, they gave bond for the vessel, and she was allowed to go on her way rejoicing.

—A Nashville telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial says: Owing to the high rates over roads directly north from this city, considerable freight is being shipped to New York via Cairo and Chicago. By this route the rate is $1,45; by a direct line it is $1,65. Arangements are being made to establish a new freight line from Nashville to New York and Boston by rail to Norfolk, Virginia, via Chattanooga and Knoxville, and thence by sea. This will result in bringing the cotton rate down to $1,40.

—Capt. D. W. and F. M. Mariatta, were in Cincinnati on Thursday. The New Orleans and Cincinnati Packet Co. was organized on Thursday. This line comprises seven first-class steamers, leaving every Wednesday and Saturday, in the order below named, the Alaska leading off on Wednesday next. Capt. Jas. S Wise was chosen Superintendent. The boats leave in the following order: Alaska, Capt. F. J. Oakes, Alice Dean, Capt. Jno. N. Shunk; John H. Groesbeck, Capt. Daniel W. Maratta, clerk; Swallow, Capt. W. W. Fenton; Robt. Burns, Capt. Frank M. Maratta, Westmoreland; Capt. W. J. Rusk, and Emma No. 3, Capt. Jas. H. Maratta.

—The stern-wheelers Lily and Helena, sunk in the Missouri, it is pretty well ascertained, cannot be raised. They belonged to C. H. Tyler, of St. Louis. The Helena was recently bought by him for $6,500, but her repairs cost considerable, and she was worth much more. She was insured for $5,500, as follows: Boatmen's, of Cincinnati, $9,000; Home, of New Haven, $2,000. The Lily was insured for $7,000, as follows: Stock and Mutual, of Chicago, $2,500; National, of Cincinnati, $1,500; Boatmen's, of Cincinnati, $3,00. The Lily had 153 tons, for the transportation of which she was to receive $80 per ton, and the Helena some 110 tons at the same rate of freight. The freight lists of both steamers were insured.

THE State Guard, at Harrisburg, nominates Gov. GEARY for re-election in 1869.

IMPARTIAL SUFFRAGE has been adopted at the recent elections in Iowa and Minnesota, and rejected in Missouri.

THE North Carolina Congressmen will stand four Republicans to three Democrats, and not vice versa, as conceded yesterday.

THE anxiety manifested by the leading Democratic newspapers that their followers shall "Stand Firm," in presence of their defeat, betrays a deep conviction that they will not.

WE HEAR of three precincts where, last week, every vote was given to GRANT, Grosnold, Massachusetts, 18 votes; Cove, Barbour county, West Virginia, 186 votes; and Johnstonville, Grant county, 125 votes.

ALEXANDER HENRY, W. H. ARMSTRONG, N. B. BROWNE, WM. M. WATTS and T. H. NEVIN, Commissioners appointed by the Governor to inspect the Western Penitentiary and report upon its condition, will commence their duties to-day.

A FEW of the Rebel F. F. V., amused themselves by going through the motions of a vote for President, in the Old Dominion on Tuesday last. Having no longer any constitutional right to "wallop their niggers," they adopted the congenial alternative of voting for BLAIR. They feel better for it, and, which is really something new, no one feels a bit worse.

ALL THE counties of Western Pennsylvania have done well in the late popular struggle, but the Republicans of Allegheny see that their own claim for the banner is not likely to be disputed, with justice, by any county except Lawrence, which, on a total of 5,436, gives a majority of 2,142 for GRANT, or more than forty per cent. of the entire vote cast. Staunch and faithful Lawrence!

THE MAJORITY in Pennsylvania will be about 30,000 for GRANT. In Maryland, the Democratic majority has been cut down from 40,000 to 25,000. In Kentucky, SEYMOUR will not have over 65,000, GRANT having received about 50,000 votes. Minnesota gives 12,000 for the Union ticket, and its Legislature will probably send DONNELLY to the U. S. Senate in the place of NORTON.

THE office of General of the armies will expire with General GRANT's resignation. By the terms of its creation, the office is personal to himself, and, will then become extinguished unless revived and extended by the fresh action of Congress. Lieutenant Gen. SHERMAN is next in rank to GRANT, and there can be no doubt of his meritorious as well as official title to succeed his promoted friend in the chief command. It will be with the discretion of Congress to renew, or not, the grade of General in SHERMAN's honor.

THAT Gen. BUTLER has been admonished that he has defects of temperament which he ought to guard against, we do not regret; but that he splendidly triumphed over the formidable combination that sought his destruction, gives us abundant satisfaction. With great clearness of mental vision and most uncommon administrative abilities, he conjoins wit and sarcasm, which are qualities often more dangerous to those who possess them than to those against whom they are wielded. Whoever has these gifts, in a conspicuous degree, is tempted by the momentary applause which they elicit to use them frequently; while those who feel their edge are sure to brood over the smart they suffer and to avenge it when an opportunity offers.

THE NOVEMBER statement of the Public Debt shows a further decrease of $11,074,-166 13. This excludes, as usual, the bonds issued to the Pacific Railways, which are now reported at a total of $42,194,000, an increase thereof of $2,560,000 during the month. The net total of the National Debt is now but $2,483,935,552 82. The details of the monthly exhibit show the additional issue of some $7,500,000 in five-twenty bonds bearing gold interest, a reduction of $11,000,000 in the debt bearing currency interest, and the liquidation of some $3,000,-000 of the matured debt, while the debt bearing no interest remains unchanged, and the cash funds in the Treasury are increased fully $3,000,000, viz: nearly $7,000,000 more in coin, and about $4,000,000 less in curreney. The entire exhibit continues to justify the favorable opinion with which the country received the Secretary's October report.

THE REPUBLICANS have full thirty majority in the New York Legislature, on joint ballot, thus securing the U. S. Senator vice MORGAN, whose term expires in March. The place will probably be given to Mr. GRISWOLD, unless a successful contest be made in his behalf for the Governor's office, to which he has just been chosen by an honest majority, on the popular vote, of at least ten thousand. At least twenty-two of the New York City election-districts, returning an aggregate majority of 4,385 for HOFFMAN and of 3,765 for SEYMOUR, are discovered to have been manipulated by the ballot-box "stuffers," whose blundering work is manifest in the established fact that the totals of votes returned exceed the registration-lists, and should therefore be thrown out entirely! Ex pede, Herculem! Additional frauds of the same kind will yet be exposed, and, whatever may be deemed expedient as to the electoral vote, the Republicans need only to enforce the provisions of law in that behalf to secure the State administration to their late candidates. But we doubt if they will have the pluck or fidelity to insist upon this justice. When the country relies upon their uniform inefficiency, the absolute definition of Republicanism in that city as a negative quantity in all cases and under all circumstances, its estimate will be steadily sustained by each new experience.

THE NEW railroad line, projected from a point on the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis Road, opposite Steubenville, down the left bank of the Ohio, to Wheeling, gains favor and strength. Brooke county, Virginia, voted to it a subscription of $100,-000, the other day, six-tenths of this sum being especially limited to be first expended south of Wellsburg. Further aid will be secured from citizens and municipalities along the proposed route, and also, it is understood, from the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis company, so that a confidence is justified in the early construction of a work of great importance to this section of Pennsylvania.

The great Pacific Railway, already constructed for over nine hundred miles west of Omaha, has reached a point less than one hundred and fifty miles from Ogden, on Salt Lake, and only eighty miles from Monument Point, where the Lake will be first touched. From the west, the track has been laid eastward to within less than two hundred and fifty miles of the Lake, and the actual gap between the two ends of this road is to-day probably not much over four hundred miles. This gap will be eight miles less at the close of every succeeding day of favorable weather, so that is not out of the range of possibilities that the connection may be completed by next New Year's Day. It is scarcely probable that this consummation can be delayed, in any event, beyond the first of April, while it is predicted, in quarters where all the facts are carefully considered, that the entire road will be opened by the fourth of March.

CAPTIOUS CRITICISM.

Just now, when professional politicians of the Republican persuasion are parceling all the offices in the gift of the national administration among themselves, it is esteemed invidious for any member of the party to speak a kind word of another.

The day after the Presidential election we took occasion to commend the zeal and intelligence with which Mr. GROW, as Chairman of the State Committee, and Mr. ERRETT, as Chairman of the Allegheny County Committee, discharged the duties that devolved on them. To avoid being misunderstood, we were careful to state, in general terms, that they were admirably helped by "various local organizations," and by unofficial "individuals in each of the counties." As a specimen of the nature and degree of this assistance, we gave the names of sixty-nine men in this county alone who were abundant in services and unsurpassed for the tact and talent by which their labors were conducted.

The State Guard takes us to task as disparaging other men who contributed to the grand result; which was precisely the thing sought not to do. At the same time it falls under the condemnation of the rule it enforces against us. From its list it omits the names of most of the men, living on the western slope of the Alleghenies who were conspicuous both for brains and work, during the canvass.

The fact is "the people had a mind to work," and would have won the victory by the might of invincible enthusiasm had there been no leaders.

TAKE IN SAIL.

The grain crop of the West is superabundant, insomuch that under ordinary conditions prices must fall, thus furnishing compensations to consumers, who for years past, through the operation of temporary causes, have been compelled to pay double rates for bread. The speculators in grain, resident at the East as well as at the West, are intensely anxious that National Banks and individual capitalists, at New York, Philadelphia, Boston, and other commercial centers, should furnish them, and on the ordinary terms, with a sufficient amount of ready money to buy up all the grain as fast as it comes upon the market, and so to hold it as to extort such prices as may suit their cupidity. As a speculation, this conception is not unnatural; but the men and institutions who own the cash do not see that it is safe. The supply of grain is so large throughout the United States, and the demand from Europe so limited, that capitalists, private and corporate, doubt the practicability of monopolizing it so as to make gains or even to avoid serious losses. They prefer to keep what money they have, instead of putting it in where it is not likely to come out again without shrinkage.

But, not a few adventurous operators risked in this enterprise all the means they could command, several weeks ago, and now find their pockets uncomfortably pinched. They cry out lustily for help; but they are just where no help can prove effectual to extricate them from peril, if not from bankruptcy. And they are where, if bankruptcy shall fall upon them, they will be without sympathy.

The time has arrived, when in the order of events, discrepancies are to be adjusted, in relation to the market values of articles of subsistence. This adjustment necessarily involves the wages of labor in all departments of mechanical and manufacturing industry. Whoever thinks he is strong enough, or cunning enough, to frustrate this desirable adjustment, may put his hand in as little or much as he pleases; but in the end he will certainly rue his audacity.

Nor is this the whole case. The recent elections have exploded the wretched scheme for manufacturing an amount of unconvertible currency sufficient to cancel a large part if not all of the outstanding government bonds. The predicted era of new and unprecedented inflation is indefinitely postponed. An instinctive feeling pervades the minds of business men that affairs must now be conducted with the view of reaching Specie Payments at as early a day as shall comport with the condition of the government and the people. This is needful to the fortifying of the public credit, to the reduction of the rate of interest on the national debt, and to that reasonable certainty in the transaction of private business which is essential to stability and security.

WHAT IS PRODUCTIVE INDUSTRY?

In Philadelphia, a few evenings before the Presidential election, Mr. ANDREW G. CURTIN made a speech, the chief object of which was to show that the money burdens of the National Government are so adjusted as not to bear mainly, or much, upon the Productive Industry of the country. With what clearness of statement he defined his position, with what breadth of argumentation he elucidated it, and with what amplitude and cogency of facts he fortified it, we cannot judge, for we have not seen even a synoptical report of his remarks. But the Post, of that city, takes him to task as unsound, alleging, in substance, that all material wealth is necessarily the outcome of Productive Industry, and that, consequently, all pecuniary contributions for the support of the Government must be made, directly or indirectly, by those persons who toil.

This apparent diversity of judgment starts the inquiry, What is Productive Industry? If the two authorities above quoted shall be found at agreement with each other in this essential preliminary, it is difficult to see how they can fall out in the progress of the discussion.

With certain classes the conception prevails that Productive Industry is confined to those departments in which muscular force is mainly employed, and that in proportion as a man ceases to use physical power, substituting for it brain power, he becomes a non-producer. Nothing can be more false than this idea of labor, and nothing more degrading to laborers. Is a man a laborer in the same ratio as he approaches the stolidity of the ox or the inanity of the ass? This estimate is denounced in all the markets of the world where labor or the products thereof are sold.

The man who works only, or mainly, with his muscles is accounted of little commercial value, and if he keeps on in that way is destined to toil hard, fare miserably and die poor. By the very ordination of Nature there is no means for bettering his case. The glory of man consists in having brains, and if he will not bring this peculiar instrument into play he must expect to rank very near the brutes, and to subsist comparatively as they do.

Everybody understands the difference between skilled and unskilled labor and laborers. A mechanic, well taught and skillful in his trade, commands higher wages than a common drudge, and for the reason that he puts more intellect into his work. The foreman of a shop or factory receives larger compensation than an ordinary workman, because to his knowledge of how to do work, and how it should be done, he superadds the faculties of direction and control. So the scale of remuneration goes on ascending, in exact degree as brute force is discarded and brain force put in its place.

The producing power of an idea or mental conception often surpasses the utmost that the bones and muscles of millions of sturdiest men can accomplish. Take the idea of utilizing Fire, as an illustration. Men saw it originally as an object of terror. Flashing athwart the heavens, and smiting either the solid rock, the gnarled oak, or man or beast, it was esteemed to be the angry eye-stroke of the gods. Shaking the firm earth, riving it with deep fissures, and spouting forth from volcanic peaks, it was deemed to be that element of vengeance wherewith demons and reprobate mortals were tormented for their sins. Springing up in spontaneous combustion, it was an impressive and fearful mystery. He who put forth his hand and took Fire captive, carried it into his cave or hut, bound it in servitude, and made it warm his person and cook his food, first made civilization possible. How prolific has the idea of domesticating that fearful element proved! Relinquish that idea, give up the arts that have grown out of it, and that constantly depend upon it, and a barbarism more deep than any that can now be found in the darkest recesses of the globe, will inevitably come again. The name of that lone, courageous man, who first subjected Fire to discipline perished from the remembrance of the human race before History was possible, but his idea does many-fold more work in the world to-day than all the muscles in it.

He who first laid his hand thoughtfully upon the mane of the horse, tamed his natural wildness, broke him into docility and usefulness, was a benefactor to the race the value of whose services are beyond computation. What burdens his thought has kept from the shoulders of millions of men through all the ages following! The conceptions of the rotundity of the earth, the rudder and the magnetic needle—what have they not done for external commerce? The alphabet, movable type, the printing press, the cotton-gin, the spinning-jenny, the steam-engine, and the magnetic telegraph—what workers were they whose fertile brains evolved the precious contrivances? From their graves these master-spirits of the race do more productive work than all the living millions that now swarm in the populous cities and fill all the land; for ideas die not, but are indestructible as those souls whose emanations they are.

Most of the Productive Industry of the world is to-day accomplished by machinery; that is to say, the productive forces of the United States and of all European nations are multiplied at least one thousand fold by the use of hands and fingers made of iron and steel. In some countries where modern machinery has received its greatest development, the productive power is more than ten thousand times what it would be with the same number of inhabitants without it.

This view helps to solve the question which the Post has started against Mr. CURTIN, which is, Who pays the taxes assessed and collected for the support of the National Government? That journal charges Mr. CURTIN with a species of demagoguery. Upon reflection it may find that it is as open to that imputation as he. This question of taxes can be intelligently answered only by first determining what is, and what is not, Productive Industry. The implied definition of the Post seems to us to be much too narrow. The great producers of the world, and of each nation thereof, are not those who work mainly with their bodies, but with their intellects.

This being understood, it is safe to go on and affirm that all property, wrought out of Nature, is the result of Productive Industry, and that labor, in this broad sense, pays everything that is paid, and whether for individuals or the Government. To adopt a more restricted definition of Productive Industry, is political charlatanism, and misleads and perverts all who confide therein.

In the United States taxes are laid upon the production of a small number of articles of luxury, and upon the production of none others. It is not easy for unimaginative persons, who have only plain common sense to guide them, to see how persons whose commodities are not taxed, pay all the taxes that are levied upon the whole people. Where taxes are upon annual incomes or profits above one thousand dollars, or any other sum, it is manifest that so far as these larger incomes are derived from current production, the profits are abated; in other words, that the production which resulted in those incomes is taxed. So far as income is derived from fixed investments, the results of former profits on production, the taxes imposed serve as an abatement of profits. No evidence has yet been brought forward, and we think none can be, to show that taxes on income of this sort have enhanced the general interest on money; and this would be as good a test of the effect of taxes in this direction as can well be suggested.

Doubtless, speaking in a general way, taxes fall upon the Productive Industry of the nation; but this industry is mental as well as physical, the mental contributing, by immense odds, the larger share to the common stock. A hand, perfect in all its joints and articulations, is worth little without an informing mind behind it. Skillful hands are common in all branches of industry. What are most rare, and most necessary, are minds of such scope and training as to be able to plan, to organize, to direct, and to invent. Such minds are the great producing forces of the world.

SOUTHERN REBELS will bluster, for a while, but we have no serious apprehensions that they will attempt any practical demonstration of their reluctance to accept the present situation. We annex a collection of gems, from the Memphis Avalanche, of November 4th, to illustrate their first agonies:

"We now say our friends must take care of themselves. Heretofore we have advised our friends to be cool and wise—to discard anger and passion; but since prudence and wisdom have made no impression, we only ask our friends to take care of themselves. We can only say that, for the future, the Avalanche will be more bitter and proscriptive upon the carpet-baggers in our midst than heretofore. It may be they have forced us to become Samsons, to pull down the pillars of the Republic. The vote of the North, yesterday, branded us as outlaws. Be it so.

"Since prudence and submission to humiliation and degradation bring us no relief, we feel no interest in the Republic; and while we have heretofore counseled prudence and restrained the hand of violence towards those who have brought upon us all our woes, we can only say to our friends, despise the Government that oppresses you, and visit a just and merited retribution upon the thieves and carpet baggers who have made us slaves. Grant is President. We are at his mercy. But if the bond-holders and the snobs of the North expect to roll in luxury and maintain their wealth by oppression and tyranny, they will be sadly mistaken, for the tone and acts of the Southern people toward the thieves and plunderers in our midst, during the next six months, will teach them that history is repeating itself, and that it will bankrupt the Government to suppress the heaving emotions and the uprising of a people who, once free, can never be slaves."

THE New York Commercial Advertiser hits the nail on the head, in the annexed paragraph:

New York has had enough of windy politicians, who fight Democracy by spouting twaddle at headquarters and the Cooper Institute, and squandering money in jobs for banners, rosettes, Roman candles, and brass instruments. Unless an organization in this city can be secured of earnest, active, incorruptible, self-sacrificing Republicans who will throw themselves into the breach with a Spartan determination, New York can never be redeemed.

THE GREAT MEDICAL MISTAKE

Of former days was an utter neglect of sanitary precautions. No efficient means were adopted for the prevention of sickness. Sewerage was unknown in cities; drainage was rarely attempted in the country. Heaps of offal were left to rot in the public streets, and domestic cleanliness, the great antidote to febrile diseases, was sadly neglected. It is not so now. Wise laws, philanthropic institutions, and a vigilant sanitary police, have, to a great extent, remedied the evil. Nor is this all. PREVENTIVE MEDICATION has helped materially to lessen the rates of mortality. It is not too much to say that TENS OF THOUSANDS escape sickness in unhealthy seasons in consequence of having INVIGORATED THEIR SYSTEMS IN ADVANCE by a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This pure and powerful vegetable tonic and alterative comprises the extracts and essences of a variety of roots and herbs, renowned for their strengthening, soothing, vitalizing and purifying properties. These medicinal agents are incorporated with a spirit absolutely free from the acrid poison which defiles, more or less, all the liquors of commerce, and their effect is diffused through the whole frame by this active, yet harmless stimulant. The result is such a condition of the system as renders it all but impervious to the exterior causes of disease, such as damp fog, sudden alternations of temperature, &c. Strength, and the perfect regularity of all the functions of the body, are the best safe-guards against atmospheric poison and the effects of unwholesome water, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the best strengthening and regulating medicine at present known. For dyspepsia and billiousness they are a SPECIFIC ABSOLUTE.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so most surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood St.

Opinions of the Press.

[From the Lawrence Journal.]

Who shall succeed Mr. Buckalew as Senator from Pennsylvania is the question that at present agitates the politicians of this State. So far as known, Gov. Curtin, the choice of a large majority of the Republicans, has withdrawn from the contest. Should this prove true, we are sorry for it, but hope he will receive in some other way the public recognition which his eminent services so richly deserve. The candidates most freely spoken of, are Mr. Kemble, of Philadelphia, late State Treasurer, and Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., of Pittsburgh. We do not desire to draw a comparison between the two gentlemen, as both are staunch Republicans and have worked faithfully for the good cause, but we believe Mr. Marshall would be the choice of a large majority of the Western counties. His labors during the present campaign have been exceeded by no public man in the State, and have entitled him to the everlasting gratitude of the party. In ability, he has few equals in the State, and should he consent to become a candidate, (which he has so far, steadily refused) we know of no man after our first choice—Andrew Curtin—whom we could more readily support.

[From the Tioga Agitator.]

Already the papers are agitating the U. S. Senator question. Were the office dependent on a popular vote the disposal of the place would not be very doubtful. But it is not so to be disposed of; we look for a wrangle. Grow, or Stanton, ought to have the field without a contest. Mr. Grow has earned distinguished recognition from the party by his skillful conduct of the campaign. To him belongs the credit of effecting the most thorough organization of the Republican party in Pennsylvania ever effected; and to this thorough organization the victory of October is due. Northern Pennsylvania will, we apprehend, present a solid column for Grow. The movement for Scofield should go no further; he is in the right place and can wait. There should be but one candidate from the Northern Tier.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, at a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

☞LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies with suitable endorsement, should be addressed To THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, November 7, 1868.

The reported willingness of the Secresary of the Treasury to re-issue greenbacks that have been redeemed but not cancelled, was construed as an expansion of currency, and has caused an advance on the gold, bond and stock exchange. Gold, which had sold yesterdry at 132, has advanced to 134¾ this evening, with a strong market, and many purchases to cover short contracts and for remittances. The gold room, brokers and speculators generally are in favor of lower rates, and encourage only temporary advances; the mass of the public move in the same direction, but a few individuals, who cannot believe in lower rates, because gold has been selling in August at 150, are holding off and predict a market between this and the close of the year at 140@142. The shipments of cotton, which have been delayed on account of low rates of gold will have to be made and grain and petroleum likewise; any consequent large offers of commercial bills must necessarily depress the rate of gold, as the foreign balance can be carried by exchange and shipments of bonds, which must be considerable during the next week. The changes of a decline are many, those for a rise but few.

Government bonds have advanced today, but did not fully respond to the advance in the stock market. The bull cliques do not seem to have suffered much, and the losses sustained during the recent decline were borne mostly by capitalists who can afford to lose, having made enough during the rise. The heaviest decline was in new bonds of 1865 and 1867 and Ten Forties, whilst the old bonds were less affected. Holders and speculators have no confidence in present prices yet, and predict a reaction during the early part of last week. The decline of bonds here has misled Europeans who were quite willing to pay advanced prices, but the sudden break of the market frightened them off.

Stocks are well sustained, but the rise was too quick not to lead to some realizations during next week.

Business is very dull, and money scarce and at high rates.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, November 7, 1868.

GENERAL REVIEW.

The market has been dull and unsettled during the week which has just closed, and prices, compared with last week, are lower. The tightness in money matters is the main cause for the sudden and unexpected reaction which has set in, and until the money market eases up again, no material improvement need be looked for. Last Saturday spot Refined sold at 29½c, and even 30c, while last evening (Friday) the same delivery sold at 26½c, a decline of three cents per gallon; or, about one dollar aud a quarter per bbl. Crude, also, has declined, but not so much as Refined. The exports of Refined east during the week were 19,909 barrels, against 15,918 barrels the week preceding; from January 1st to date, 606,105 barrels, against 559,421 barrels, same time last year. The receipts of Crude for the week were: 24,965 barrels, against 20,900, the week preceding; from January 1st to date, 919,668 barrels. The sales for the week were 48,600 barrels, against 43,600 last week.

CRUDE.

The market closed somewhat firmer this evening, in sympathy with the improvement in Refined, though prices continue unsettled and irregular, in consequence mainly of the irregularity in gravity. We can report 3,400 bbls, on spot, (40 to 45 gravity) at 10⅞c; 2,600 do same delivery and gravity, on private terms; and—last evening—1,400 bbls same gravity and delivery at 11¼c. We are cognizant of 11¼c having been offered for a certain specified gravity; it was to fill a contract, we believe, and no other, but that specified by the contract, would be accepted. We have heard of several lots of oil having been rejected within the past few days because the gravity did not come to the specifications of the contract in this respect.

REFINED.

There was a decidedly better feeling in the market for Refined to-day, particularly for this month's delivery, which was attributed to the advance in gold, and easing up in the eastern money market. Compared with last evening, prices are firm, and a half to three quarters of a cent better, and at the advance, the market was reported firm. We can report 500 bbls for the first half of November at 27¼c; 1,000 do at 27½c, and 1,000 do for the last half at 27½c. Last evening, it will be remembered, there was a sale of spot oil at 26½c.

MONTHLY PETROLEUM REPORT.

Production—Development—Stock of Petroleum in the Region—Number of New Wells Drilling---Iron Tankage---Shipments—The Price—Exports, &c., &c.

Report for the Month Ending Oct. 31, 1868.

[From the Titusville Herald.]

THE PRODUCTION.

The production during the last two days of October, as taken from gauge tanks at the wells, was 11,113 barrels, a decrease from the last two days of the previous month of 1,414 barrels. This large decrease occurred principally in the Oil Creek and Cherry Run districts, and was brought about by the production of several of the largest wells falling entirely or falling off very much. The number of producing wells struck in these districts during the month was small.

The largest decrease in any one district was in that of Upper Cherry run, which, during the 30th and 31st of October, was producing 1,665 barrels per day, while during the each of the two last days of September it produced 2,379 barrels, a falling off of over 700 barrels. The Cherry-tree run district shows a decrease of nearly two hundred barrels. The farms in the Lower Cherry run and in the Allegheny river districts; the Benninghoff, Blood and Tarr farms, also show decreases. During the first twenty-five days of the period under review, the production receded, but not so rrpidly as during the succeeding six days. In the last week the greater part of the decrease on Upper Cherry and Cherry-tree runs, took place, and there was also in this time a decrease in the Allegheny river districts, and on Lower Cherry run. During the first twenty-five days the production at the wells could not have varied much from 11,700 or 11,800 barrels per day. It is doubtful whether the productions will decrease as rapidly during November as during the month under review, as there will be a larger number of new wells completed during November than there was in October. The only district where the production has been increased considerably is in that of Pleasantville. In this district the increase has amounted to but two hundred and thirty barrels, while there were twenty-five or thirty wells which were tested and produced in paying quantities. There was a slight increase on Cherry run, near Oil City. On this run a new well was struck which produced seventy-five barrels per day. Another one which produced fifty-six barrels per day ceased producing as soon as the former one commenced yielding. The largest producing well in the region now yields two hundred and fifty barrels per day. There are four or five others, the production of which ranges from one hundred to two hundred barrels per day.

At Tidioute the production has remained quite steady. During the month there were considerable quantities of bulk petroleum shipped from this point to Oil City, as there was also during the previous month. The amounts shipped are transferred to the different gauge cars, or run into tanks at Oil City, and are then taken account of either as stock on hand or as off shipments.

In the table of production, tankage, &c., in another column, will be found the average daily production during the 30th and 31st. This production is taken at the wells, and as they are located at distances of from a few feet to six miles from the railroads, there is always some loss while the production is being transported to the railroads. There are also losses from shrinkage, evaporation, &c., at the wells. These losses have been found to average in the aggregate from three to four per cent. During the present cool weather the aggregate losses from the causes above mentioned will not reach over three per cent., and the actual production which could reach the railroads would, therefore, be three per cent. off the amount given as the production at the wells.

On the last day of October, 1867, the production taken at the wells was 9,800 barrels, while at the same date, 1868, it was 11,113 barrels.

THE DEVELOPMENT AND THE TERRITORY.

The number of new wells being drilled on November 1st was four hundred and thirty-five, an increase of fifty-seven from the first of the previous month. The number of wells drilling on the first instant was forty-four greater than at any previous date during 1868, and one hundred and ninety more than at the same date in 1867.

Of the four hundred and thirty-five wells drilling on the first, two hundred and thirteen were located in the Pleasantville district. In this district the known producing territory has again been greatly extended by the finding of several large producing wells. It now embraces from three to four square miles, and is much the largest tract of producing territory ever discovered. So far, large producing wells have been found over nearly the whole territory for a distance of about two miles north-east of the National wells, and the present indications are that the producing territory can be much farther extended. The sand rock underlying this territory, which produces the petroleum, is thin in comparison with other producing sand rocks, and consequently when the wells are sunk closely together the production of each of them declines very rapidly.

On Cherry Tree Run the developments have been very unsatisfactory, six or seven new wells having been tested that did not produce more than from three to twenty barrels per day. On Cherry Run, near Oil City, there is some demand for leases, and it is probable that several wells will be commenced in that district during November. On Upper Cherry Run the known producing territory has been found to be but a few acres in extent, and the number of drilling wells has fallen off. To the east of this district a vein of black petroleum, like that found in the Pleasantville district, has been discovered, and it is almost certain that it is but a continuation of the vein found in that district.

From the experience of the past eight years there is no reason to believe but that the territory in Pennsylvania can, for at least a century, supply any demand which may arise. Although on a general survey of the whole territory, there now appears to be little that, by development, is known to be of the producing order, that has not been drawn upon more or less largely, yet there is no doubt but that there are still large tracts which remain undeveloped, and the territory that has been abandoned can, by exhausting the water from it, again be made to produce. The work of exhausting the water from abandoned territory has been actively commenced, and the result has already proved that by further prosecution of it, the territory can be made to produce although not so largely as at first.

THE STOCK OF PETROLEUM.

The stock of petroleum in the region has remained without material change, having amounted on November 1st to 266,180 barrels of forty-three gallons each This stock shows an increase of but 2,372 barrels. The amount in iron tankage has been increased by 1,272 barrels. Compared with November 1st, 1867, the total stock shows a decrease of 388,820 barrels.

In the total stock are included the amonnt in iron tankage throughout the region, 5,000 barrels at Titusville, 500 on the Hyde & Egbert Farm, 1,300 at Oil City, and 1,500 barrels at Tidioute, all in wooden storage tanks, and the amount in tanks at the wells which was 81,000 barrels. This latter amount is owned by producers, dealers and shippers; the latter parties own two-thirds. Of the stock at the wells 32,000 barrels were held at Pleasantville.

The following table shows the total stock and the amount in iron tankage on the dates named:

THE IRON TANKAGE.

No change has taken place in the capacity of iron tankage since our last report, it still remaining at 1,070,539 barrels of forty-three gallons each. The capacity of empty tankage has been decreased slightly. As compared with the capacity on the 7th of November 1867, the total capacity on the 1st inst. shows an increase of 353,637 barrels. The capacity of tankage shows an increase during the same time of 428,659 barrels.

The capacity of tankage now being constructed is, in round numbers, 100,000 barrels, and is located principally at Miller and Petroleum Centre.

THE SHIPMENTS.

The total shipments of crude and refined from the region by railroads and transportation lines for the month was 308,171 barrels of forty-five gallons each, a falling off of 29,000 barrels. THE phosphate rocks lying near Charleston, South Carolina, are supposed to be of immense value, inasmuch as they contain the element of a most valuable fertilizer. It is stated that a million dollars have been received in Charleston since last spring from the sale of the rock and from subscriptions to the stock of companies. The lands where the treasures lie have increased immensely in value, and a spirit of speculation prevails.

There are ten thousand bald headed men in Pittsburgh—so says a statistician.

Committed.—Alderman Thomas, on Saturday, committed to the county jail for trial, Margaret Barrett, charged, on oath of John Sullivan, with felonious assault and battery.

Surety.—Charles McIntyre made information on Saturday before Alderman Herron against Mary Mellon for surety of the peace. Mary was arrested and committed for trial.

Adjourned Meeting.—An adjourned meeting of the Allegheny Board of School Controllers will be held to-morrow evening in the Common Council Chamber, City Building, at 7½ o'clock.

Pickpockets About.—A countryman had his pocket picked of thirty dollars in the neighborhood of the Union Depot on Friday morning. The thief made his escape without being detected.

Gen. Grant passed through this city on Friday night on his way to Washington. From Crestline here he was escorted by Mr. J. D. Layng, Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Pittsbugh, Chicago and Fort Wayne Railroad.

Jailed.—Caroline Kurtz made information before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, on Saturday, against her husband, Gottlieb Kurtz, for assault and battery. The accused was arrested and committed to jail for trial in default of $500 bail.

A Division Asked For.—A petition numerously signed by citizens of Ohio township, was presented in the Court of Common Pleas on Saturday, asking for a division of said township into two, to be called Ohio and Kilbuck. The petition was filed.

Change of Time.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that on and after to-day the trains on the Allegheny Valley Railroad will be run on a revised schedule. Those of our readers who travel over this road should make a note of the change.

The iron cross for the new tower of St. Paul's Cathedral was delivered at the church on Saturday. It is now being supplied with the necessary gas fixtures for illuminating purposes, the authorities having decided to stand the light charge of $3,000 for that addition to the beautiful tower.

Cross Suits.—Henry and Jacob Abraham made information before Alderman Thomas on Saturday, against Patrick Cosgrave for assault and battery. The parties got into difficulty at Ward's Livery Stable, where Patrick is employed. Patrick entered a cross suit and the two gave bail for a hearing.

A Dog Case.—On Saturday Matthew McBride and Conrad Schal, of the Sixth ward, had a little misunderstanding in regard to a couple of dogs, which resulted in an information being made by Conrad, before Alderman Thomas, against Matthew for assault and battery. Matthew was arrested, and after a hearing gave bail for trial.

Leg Broken.—Mr. John Hague was thrown from the hose carriage of the Independence Fire Company on Thursday afternoon last and had his leg broken. The accident occurred in Lawrenceville, and the injured man was taken to his residence, corner of Clymer and Smallman streets, where his injuries received proper attention.

Parade.—The military cadets, students of the Western University, paraded on Saturday afternoon, turning out about one hundred strong, under command of their gallant young Captain, Andrew Jackman, Jr. They were preceded by a brass band and made a highly creditable appearance. Their marching and street drill attracted much attention and praise.

Severe Fall.—On Friday evening last Mr. John Francis fell through the trestle work of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, in the rear of Oscar Lamm & Co's. coal office on Sandusky street, Allegheny, dislocating his shoulder blade and fracturing his collar bone. The injured man was conveyed to his residence on Western avenue, and medical assistance called in. At last accounts he was doing well.

On Dit.—The Republic is about to be sold to a joint stock company for $20,000 cash, and is to be converted into an afternoon Democratic paper of the same size as the Chronicle. The gentlemen at the head of the enterprise are wealthy and energetic, and we dare say will make their adventure in journalism a successful one; if they don't, they can lose fifty or an hundred thousand dollars as easily that way as any other, and perhaps a little easier.

Western University.--The present term of this institution is very full. The Collegiate and Scientific Classes are unusually large. Additions are constantly made to the advantages enjoyed. The next term will commence Wednesday, the 11th inst. Mental Philosophy, Rhetoric, Political Economy, Astronomy and Chemistry are taken up in course this term. All the studies of Preparatory English, Preparatory Classical, Scientific and Collegiate courses are regularly taught.

Abandonment.—Casper Fellser was brought before Alderman Taylor on Saturday, charged with abandonment and desertion, on oath of his wife, Lisetta Fellser. Lisetta alleges that her husband has deserted her and refuses to do anything towards the support of his family, consisting of herself and four children. The alleged inhumanity of Casper was punished by his commitment to jail for trial, when, if the allegations are proved to be true, he will doubtless suffer somewhat more for his delinquencies.

An Impudent Thief.—Mr. James McDonald, a storekeeper from the rural districts, visited this city on Saturday, for the purpose of supplying himself with a stock of goods. While loitering around Water street, he met a man named James Sutton, who invited him into a saloon to take a drink. After imbibing, Mr. McDonald looked at his watch to ascertain the time, when his new friend snatched it and ran out of the saloon. Officer Brown witnessed the movement, when he arrested Sutton and conveyed him to the lock-up.

District Court—Judge McCandless.

The United States District Court convened at ten o'clock, A. M., Saturday, Judge McCandless presiding.

The case of the United States vs. William H. Wilson, previously reported, was resumed, and the evidence for the defense submitted. A large number of very respectable witnesses were called and testified to the good character of the defendant. The case was then ably argued by R. Biddle Roberts, for the defence, and by R. B. Carnahan for the prosecution, after which Judge McCandless reviewed the testimony in the case, and laid down the rules of law to the jury.

The jury retired and after a few moments absence returned a verdict of not guilty.

Judge McCandless remarked to the jury, after the verdict had been rendered, that he did not often express an opinion upon the facts, after charging the jury; but he thought it was due the defendant to say that he (the Judge) thought their verdict was correct. He coincided in their opinion.

The prisoner, Mr. Wilson, who throughout the trial, had borne himself with great fortitude, was overcome by the announcement of the verdict, and burst into tears. He was warmly congratulated by his friends in attendance, and left the court room with his name thoroughly purified from the taint which had been thrown upon it. A warm sympathy was elicited for the defendant during the trial, and the verdict of the jury is also the verdict of the large number of persons who listened attentively to the evidence during the trial.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

In the case of the city of Allegheny vs. Christopher and Charles Zug, J. G. McCombs, Esq., was appointed Commissioner to take testimony.

The business transacted was of no public interest.

Starved to Death.

It seems almost incredible that a man should starve to death in this land of plenty, but the following facts places the matter beyond question: For some time past a German, named Frank Stein, aged about fifty years, has been occupying a room in a building, on an alley, in the vicinity of the Birmingham Diamond. Stein was a peddler by occupation, and frequently took extended trips into the country. On Wednesday last he was noticed going to his room, but was not seen afterwards until Saturday, when the attention of a neighbor was attracted by the howlings of a dog. The neighbor ascended to Stein's room, and upon opening the door, found the body of the unfortunate man lying upon the floor, and a half-starved dog keeping watch over it. Assistance was at once procured, and the body examined, when it was discovered to be partially decomposed. The Coroner was notified, when he at once summoned a jury, and proceeded to investigate the case. Dr. J. H. Roberts testified that from the appearance of the body, death had resulted from the want of proper nourishment, and the surroundings indicated that the Doctor's theory was correct. The room contained several articles of furniture, but the cupboard was entirely empty, in fact food of any kind could not be found on the premises. It is supposed that Stein went to his room on Wednesday, and being without means to purchase food, literally starved to death. His dog remained faithful to him to the last, and when found was hardly able to walk. Stein was afflicted with a loathsome disease, which prevented him from following his occupation of peddler, but the neighbors were not aware of the fact until after his death. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts in the case. Coroner Clawson took charge of the body, and provided for its decent interment at the expense of the county. It is supposed that the deceased had no relatives in this country.

Cutting Affray.

On Thursday evening last the colored people of Lower St. Clair township had a ball at the house of Mr. Peter Owens, in said township, where a difficulty occurred between Raleigh, Jackson and Joseph Hopkins, and after a few words had passed blows were exchanged, and Hopkins finding Jackson too much for him made his escape. Albert Cooper, a friend to Hopkins, interfered, when it is alleged Jackson turned upon him with a dirk knife and cut him in the leg, inflicting a serious wound. Hopkins made information before Justice Salisbury, of Birmingham, charging Jackson with felonious assault and battery. The accused was arrested and after a hearing was held for trial.

Chartiers Railroad.—Let us now have this line completed. The welfare of this county is absolutely involved in the building of this road speedily. The efforts which being made by the friends of the enterprise to build the Monongahela Valley Road, and the road connecting Holliday's cove with Wheeling, should quicken the energies of our people. We hope the difficulties in the way of success will be removed, and work commenced.—Washington Reporter

Alleged Highway Robbers Arrested—Their Operations in Allegheny.

While going the rounds on Friday evening two of the Allegheny police discovered a drunken man lying on the sidewalk on Ohio street, near Chestnut, about midnight. When aroused, he stated that he had been robbed by two men. At this juncture Lieutenant Campbell came up, and, after hearing the statement, he directed the officers to take him to the watchouse, while he searched for the alleged robbers. In prosecuting his search, he met Lieutenant Kennedy, who stated that he had noticed two men passing down Chestnut street, towards the river. The Lieutenants, accompanied by officers Hall and Lafferty went to the toll-house of the upper bridge, where they ascertained that two men had passed over to Pittsburgh a short time previous. Continuing their pursuit they succeeded in apprehending the suspected parties in an oyster saloon, on Canal street, near Penn. The men, who gave their names as Wm. Mininger and Wm. Bramin, were conveyed to the Allegheny lock-up. By this time the man who had been robbed had recovered somewhat and was able to talk connectedly. He stated that his name was John Deik, and that he had been robbed of his pocketbook containing forty-one dollars in money, some fractional currency and a railroad ticket. He also stated that a pocket knife, a pipe, and several smaller articles had been taken. The arrested parties were then searched, when some ten dollars was found in possession of Bramin, and a pipe which was identified by Deik. Mininger had but eight cents in his possession, but a large hole was discovered in one of his pockets, from which the officers concluded he had dropped the money, and a search was made along the route while taking him to the lockup, which resulted in the finding of several one dollar bills and one five dollar note.

On Saturday morning the arrested parties had a hearing before Mayor Drum, when Deik was sworn. He stated that he had been drinking on Friday night, but at the time of the robbery was not intoxicated. While walking along, with his hands in his pockets, he was seized from behind and held, while his pockets were being rifled. He identified the pipe taken from Bramin, but failed to recognize the prisoners.

Bramin, at the conclusion of Deik's statement, told a fishy story of his meeting with Deik and Meninger together, when the latter told him he had gotten some money from Deik. They then divided the spoils, he taking the pipe and part of the money, while Meninger retained the remaining articles, but threw the pocket book in the stove of a saloon on Penn street. After the case had been heard, Mayor Drum committed Mininger and Bramin to jail for trial.

Distressing Affair—Death of an Estimable Young Lady.

Our readers will remember that in noting some of the incidents connected with the Republican torchlight procession, which took place here on the evening of the twenty-third of October, we chronicled an accident which happened to a young lady, Miss Cassy Haines, residing on Lacock street, Allegheny. It seems that while the procession was moving along Lacock street, Miss Haines was seated at the front window of her residence, when the stick of a sky rocket entered through the open window and struck her in the face, just below the right eye. At the time there were several companions in the room, who, seeing her fall to the floor, ran to her assistance. Upon being lifted up it was discovered that she had been very severely injured, the cheek being laid open and several of her teeth knocked out. Dr. Thomas Mahon was immediately summoned and dressed the wound, which healed up in a few days after. Her nervous system, however, seemed to have received a shock from which it was impossible to recover, and notwithstanding all the exertions of medical skill, she grew worse until Friday last, when death put an end to her sufferings.

The deceased was a most estimable young lady, beloved alike in the home circle and among her companions. In their bereavement, the parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Her funeral took place yesterday from her late residence, No. 213 Lacock street, Allegheny, and was largely attended by those who knew her in life, and who thus sorrowfully testified their appreciation of her character.

A Frightful Fall.

Yesterday morning a serious accident occurred in the GAZETTE building, by which Matthew Quilley, a boy about twelve years of age was severely injured. It appears that he and a number of other boys were playing in the hall or entrance to the office, and becoming boisterous and noisy, were ordered away. They shortly returned, however, and going to the rear of the building, where the machinery for hoisting and lowering the "forms" is located, amused themselves by hoisting each other on the rope. Quilley took hold of the rope when the others hoisted him through the hatchways to the third floor, where he was held until his hold gave way, and he was precipitated to the lower floor, a distance of thirty feet. His right arm was broken in two places, and his shoulder dislocated. Dr. Geo. L. McCook was called, and with the assitance of Dr. Murdoch, reduced the fractures and dislocation, after which the boy was removed to the residence of his parents, on Tunnel street, by Mayor Blackmore, who happened to be passing the office in his carriage when the accident occurred.

There is no one to censure for the accident but the boy and his parents, and it is strange that such accidents in this city are not more frequent occurrences, as many children are permitted to stroll about the city at all times, and especially on Sunday, to the great annoyance of the community generally.

Stolen Goods Recovered.

A colored domestic, named Josephine Walker, alias Price, alias Newton, entered the service of the family of Mr. Jacob Kinzer, in the Fourteenth ward, on Monday morning last. On Wednesday morning she disappeared, taking with her a large amount of clothing, furs, &c., &c., valued at one hundred and seventy-five dollars. Mr. Kinzer made information before Alderman Thomas against her for larceny, and offered a reward of twenty-five dollars for her capture. The officers, after considerable trouble, succeeded in apprehending her on Friday afternoon, and after a hearing she was committed to jail for trial on Saturday. All of the goods were found in her possession when she was arrested, at the house of a family near Four Mile Run, where she had secured a situation the day previous. It is likely that her thieving propensities will be checked for some time to come.

Double Presentation.

Messrs. Wm. Tatnall and C. L. Kline, bosses in the factory and mill of Messrs. Shoenberger & Co., were on Saturday night made the recipients of substantial marks of the esteem and regard of their workmen in the way of each receiving a splendid gold watch as a present. Messrs. William Forgey and R. W. Garrison made the speeches of the occasion in a felicitous manner, which were appropriately responded to by those honored. The recipients are both worthy gentlemen, and we are glad to note this evidence of the esteem in which they are held by their fellow-workingmen. May they live long to enjoy their magnificent time-pieces, and may the second-hand never record a moment of sorrow or misfortune in their lives.

Death of Allen Kramer, Esq.

The death of this estimable Christian gentleman took place on Saturday night at the residence of his son, Mr. Florence Kramer, 52 Liberty street. Fears were entertained when he was suddenly stricken down some days since with apoplexy that he would not suryive. Death, however found him ready for the change.

Mr. Kramer was one of our oldest citizens, and throughout his long business career, his course has been honorable and straightforward. For over a quarter of a century he was identified with the banking interests of our city, most of the time the seinor member of the banking house of Kramer & Rahm, and more recently Vice President of the Central Bank. For many years he also had an interest in an extensive banking house in Philadelphia. During this long period, he ever acted the high minded gentleman, and was noted for his honesty, and integrity of character. The business community always had great confidence in him, and this feeling of high regard was unchanged during his business career.

When the hey-day of prosperity came, and money flowed into his coffers, he made his wealth a blessing to others. Numerous Methodist churches have received large pecuniary aid, having always been a leading and influential Methodist. A beautiful church in a neighboring city bears his name for his efforts in its behalf. Allegheny College has its "Kramer Professorship," by his generous liberality. Homes for the poor and afflicted, and Asylums for orphans, and other institutions, have shared largely from his generous purse, and not only was his means freely bestowed to build up the cause of Christianity, education, and benevolent objects, but time and labor have been united with his gifts. His excellent wife, not long since deceased, was pre-eminent in caring for the widow and orphans of the soldier, the poor, the distressed and afflicted, and he was her supporter in these noble acts of charity. For years and at the time of his death he was the acting President of the Board of Trustees of the Pittsburgh Female College, and always took great interest in the prosperity of that institution.

Mr. Kramer was a man of noble mien and dignified carriage. Naturally retiring in his manners, yet firm and decided in all that he undertook to do. His suavity of manner, social and domestic habits, attracted many persons to his fireside, to enjoy his society and generous hospitality. His excellent qualities shone in private life, and those who knew him intimately speak in the highest terms of his domestic and social virtues. His name will long be like "ointment poured forth."

The County Christian Convention.

This assemblage of representatives of the various Evangelical Churches of Allegheny County, will meet in the Second Presbyterian Church, (Dr. Howard's,) Penn street, to-morrow evening, November 10th, for organization, conference and prayer. Wednesday and Thursday will be devoted to the discussion of the very practical and vitally important questions relative to Christian activity, which were given in full in our notice of the Convention of Thursday last.

On Thursday and Friday evenings following, will be held the anniversary meetings of the Young Men's and Women's Christian Associations, respectively.

A number of well known Christian workers from other States are expected to be present. Of these Rev. B. W. Chidlaw, of Cincinnati, D. S. Moody, of Chicago, K. A. Burnell, of Milwaukee, William A. Bacon, of Detroit, Henry Vincent, the distinguished English orator, and Rev. Alfred C. Roe, of New York, Eastern Secretary of the American Christian Commission, have already promised to be present.

It is requested that every Evangelical Church in the country send its pastor and two or three lay members as delegates, and it is suggested that those who may have developed practical methods of Christian work which will throw light upon the topics for discussion alluded to, come prepared to present their plans briefly to the Convention.

It is desired that all, whether delegates or not, will feel themselves privileged and urged to attend every session and avail themselves of the rare opportunity of gaining new ideas and new plans from fresh and valuable experiences on questions that are of the highest importance to every Church, Sunday School and Christian Association.

As the Convention promises to be a large one, with many from outside the city in attendance, those of our citizens who can are urged to leave their names and addresses at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth avenue, for the entertainment of delegates.

The Lecture To-night.

The lecture season will be opened under the auspices of the Young Men's Mercantile Association at Lafayette Hall, this evening, with the distinguished English orator and scholar, Mr. Henry Vincent. The ability and eloquence of this brilliant representative of the orators of the mother country, together with his known liberal ideas and principles, will doubtless draw to the hall one of the largest audiences we have ever had under one roof at a lecture. There will be no reserved seats, so that those who would secure choice places should go early. Mr. Vincent's subject is "Home Life, its Duties and Pleasures," which will embrace the following topics: Morning Dreams—First Steps in Life—Business Duties—Adult Education—Courtships—Love and Marriage—Husbands and Wives—Parents and Children—Friendship and Friends—Acquaintances—Next Door Neighbors—The Persons who Live Next Door—Men who Row with the Stream—The World is What we Make it by a Sunny, Self-reliant and Heroic Action.

Serious Accident.

A painful accident occurred at C. Zug & Son's Rolling Mills, corner of Fifteenth and Etna streets, Ninth ward, Saturday, by which Mr. John Carr, an employé at the mill was seriously injured. He was raking cinders from the flue of a heating furnace, and a quantity of the same falling into a pool of hot water an explosion followed. A large mass of the cinders and a quantity of hot water were thrown upon the unfortunate man, burning and scalding his head, breast and other portions of his body in a frightful manner. His left eye was entirely destroyed. Dr. Hamilton attended him, and after his hurts were dressed as well as the circumstances would admit of, he was conveyed to the Mercy Hospital. That he will recover is extremely doubtful. Carr came to this country from England quite recently, and has a wife and six children in the old country.

Larceny as Bailee.

Philip Ochve made information on Saturday before Alderman McMasters against Isaac Crown, a Jew clothier, doing business on Liberty street, for larceny as bailee. Philip alleges that he went into Crown's store several weeks since and ordered a pair of pantaloons, paying ten dollars on them, which were to be finished the following Saturday. Philip further alleges that he called at the appointed time but the article was not ready, and he has since called three or four times without getting the pantaloons or the money, Crown was arrested, and after a hearing committed for Court.

Our young friend W. K. Gallagher, of Allegheny, has yielded to Hymen's gentle powers, another recruit has been added to the ranks of the Benedicts, and the goodly town of Canton, Ohio, mourns the loss of one of the fairest of its fair denizens.

Amusements.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—The management of the "old Drury" during the excited season of the campaign, was such as to win from both Democrats and Republicans the warmest encomiums of praise. The untiring efforts of W. C. Gallagher, Esq., Manager, to create among amusement goers a taste for genuine low comedy, won for him the best wishes of all lovers of the drama. True, his stock company was not so brilliant as it might have been, nor were the stars from abroad of such magnitude as originally promised, but the manager did the best he could under the circumstances. Anything free in Pittsburgh, from a dog fight up to an Italian Opera, will draw full houses, and so did the Theatre, but they didn't pay. The panic in the gold and bond market of New York, together with extraneous matters not necessary here to enumerate, suddenly collapsed the establishment, and with no large fortune or great expectations, Manager Gallagher retired and the temple was closed forever. The noble "Roman Father" was immediately sought out and brought forth from retirement by his host of friends, and in order to pay him a substantial mark of regard a grand complimentary benefit was arranged. To-night it takes place at the New Opera House, and we earnestly trust that a thousand more tickets may be sold than there are seats in the building. Mr. Gallagher appears in his role of "Virginius," and Miss Helen Western, with the entire stock company, appear in the bill. Let no Republican or Democrat fail to be present and help swell the proceeds.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Opera House season at the Academy of Music which, notwithstanding its brevity, was an unusually brilliant one, closed on Saturday night, and to-night an entertainment of a different character will be presented. The celebrated Hanlon Troupe will perform at the Academy during the present week. The acrobatic feats and exhibition of muscle and nerve by the Hanlon Brothers is really wonderful and without a parallel. During the entertainment they introduce their two wheeled velocipedes, which have created such a furore in the east. and many other attractions, which must be seen to be fully appreciated.

FRANKLIN HALL.—The enterprise and energy of Major Burnell, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Museum, at Franklin Hall, is highly commendable, and we are gratified to know that his efforts to establish a first-class place of amusement for families is acknowledged by an appreciative public in the way of a liberal patronage, The attractions presented at this really interesting establishment are too numerous to speak of in detail, but we would urge all our friends to visit it and see for themselves.

MASONIC HALL.—The Morris Brothers' celebrated minstrel troupe will commence a season of entertainments at Masonic Hall to-night. We can assure our readers that this is the same troupe whose entertainments here last winter were so highly praised by the amusement-going public. Have no hesitancy in engaging your seats, and you will not be disappointed, for the Morris troupe are here, every man of them.

Popular Delusions.

There is a popular delusion (and one that is very humiliating to Americans,) that Americans, as a class, are unable to appreciate excellence in art, or highly finished work exhibiting rare mechanical skill. There is another idea prevalent which is equally erroneous, to-wit: That American manufacturers and American artisans have neither the ability to conceive nor the skill to accomplish work equally as durable and fine as the products of foreign countries. Very little reflection is sufficient to correct these opinions, which are injurious in their effects. The amount of money annually expended by Americans on works of art alone has been the source of wonder to those foreigners best informed on art topics. With comparatively little knowledge, certainly with a tithe of the experience possessed by Europeans, we have not only held our own with them in the manufacture of various articles, but, in a number of instances excelled them. The only, and perhaps the greatest drawback Americans have to contend with, is the universal scramble for riches. Pursuing wealth, excellence becomes secondary. Did the European manufacturers pursue a similar course, the chances are that American manufacturers would drive their wares out of the American market, and in that case nothing but the difference in the degree of population and the abundance of labor would prevent American wares from finding purchasers in foreign countries.

There is still another delusion, namely, that everything imported is superior to home manufactures. A large proportion of the articles imported will not bear comparison with our own productions. Every well informed man or woman is well aware of this fact. A vast amount of tawdry, imperfect, meretricious work is sold in this country as "first-class," which would not find a ready sale abroad. These are purchased by the ignorant. In the manufacture of printing presses, locomotives, glassware, and in various other branches we have proved that we can excel when we are determined to do so. Notwithstanding the fact that at the present time a large portion of the stained, ground and enameled glass consumed in this country is imported, it is among the possibilities that American manufacturers will revolutionize the entire business. Any one who will take the trouble to examine the specimens of stained, ground and enameled glass made by Messrs. Page, Zellers & Duff, (glass manufacturers,) No. 8 Wood street, will agree with us that more uniform, finer, softer, or better toned colors, or more natural, easy, flowing designs, it would be dificult to find. This is especially true of those specimens in which a variety of colors are displayed. The outer surface of the glass, unlike the greater portion of the stained glass we have examined, is perfectly smooth, retaining the high polish secured in the flattening oven. This firm is destined to play an important part in the movement which will place the business of glass staining upon a basis that will resist all foreign competetion. Their facilities for manufacturing, as well as staining and enameling glass, enables them to produce a large amount of work without incurring the delays heretofore experienced by parties engaged in glass staining alone. "Excellence" is the first object aimed at. This fact alone warrants the belief that they will be successful in their new enterprise.

The great bargains daily obtained by purchasers of ladies' furs at the first class house of William Fleming, No. 139 Wood street, keep the commodious salesrooms thronged with customers, and tax the fullest energy of the large corps of gentlemanly and courteous salesmen in constant attendance. The choice, richness, variety and immensity of the stock carried by this firm excites the wonder of contemporary establishments, while the exceedingly low prices form the theme for household conversation in all these parts. No other establishment in the same line of trade in this city attempts to keep so large a stock on hands, nor does any offer such a well-selected variety from the lowest grades up to the very highest. It is certainly a novelty that a purchaser can for ten dollars procure a set of fashionable furs, both beautiful and comfortable, or for much more money, at the same establishment, procure the finest the market produces, such, for instance, as the rich Hudson Bay, or luxurious Mink Sable. The cardinal principle of representing no goods in any other manner than justifiable by the quality, has won for the house an enviable popularity and public confidence. It is the universal and outspoken opinion on all sides that at this emporium wholesale and retail buyers save from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. in all their purchases, while they enjoy the great advantage of making selection from the largest and finest stock in the city.

Superior Wines.

The fact is perhaps not generally known that the Catawba wine produced in this county is unsurpassed by the productions of any other locality. For some time past a competition has existed between Mr. J. Handenschild, of Temperanceville, and Mr. Ludwig, of Kilbuck Station, two well known producers, and each professed to make the best and purest article. Being unable to agree among themselves as to the quality of their products, they decided to leave the matter to a committee composed of Messrs. Nat. Linton, E. Haug, J. Zeigler, J. Ringby, J. Pfischner, P. Doubble, D. E. Sexton, J. C. Shaffer, Major Vierheller and J. F. Muller. The committee met Saturday afternoon at the Black Bear Hotel, Diamond, and after testing the wines, decided that Mr. Handerschild's was the best, but also pronounced Mr. Ludwig's to be of a very fine quality.
